SUPPLEMENT

Although it was originally intended to draw up an economic plan for the Russian zone for the entire year 1948, K. I. Koval, representative of Marshal Sokolovsky on economic questions, and Khmelevsky, director of the economic planning division of the GMA, have announced that plans will be made only for the first quarter of the said year. Khmelevsky stated that, in view of the uncertain outcome of the London conference to be held in November, it would be unwise to proceed with a long-range plan based on conditions prevailing in Germany at the present time.
